

CLOCKWISE FROM TOP LEFT

Sunny side up

A solid oak table is an essential ingredient for a quintessential country breakfast. Neptune provides tempting, quality designs in classic styles and actively seek out sustainable materials – the perfect choice for a family kitchen table.

Salisbury pedestal table, £645; Suffolk chairs, £185 each, both Neptune

Rich stitching

These pretty, embroidered floral patterns in a soft palette of gentle pearls and sand, with muted flashes of azure and lavender, look far more lavish than their price tag suggests. The stunning tonal embroidery of this linen-look fabric catches the light wonderfully for an opulent shimmering effect.

Bloom collection, £32.50 a metre for embroidered designs, Prestigious Textiles

Fuss-free flooring

The subtle tonal ranges and textures of these porcelain tiles give them a deceptively natural look but have the advantage of being non porous, so they are far easier to maintain and keep clean.

Strata Bianco floor tiles, £44.90 a square metre, Fired Earth

FEATURE: KATY GREEN
PHOTOGRAPHS: LEFT: JONATHAN BUCKLE